Date	Location	Highlights
Aug 26 2017 (SAT)	PORTLAND, OREGON	Welcome to Portland! If time allows, explore the city before setting sail on your "rivers of wine" cruise. Champagne and hors d'oeuvres await you on board before sitting down for a sumptuous dinner.

Aug 27 2017 (SUN)	HOOD RIVER / COLUMBIA RIVER GORGE NATIONAL SCENIC AREA	Start your day with a stop at the towering Multnomah Falls--the tallest falls in Oregon. Then make your way to two fabulous local wineries in the Columbia Gorge AVA for a date with the winemakers. Enjoy a tasting at Hood River's beautifully rustic Springhouse Cellars--a working winery housed in a former turn-of-the-century fruit cannery and distillery. At Mt. Hood Winery, the expertise of eight generations of winemakers is yours to savor--tour and taste at this century-old farm under the watchful gaze of the winery's volcanic namesake. Back on board, cruise upriver through the Columbia River Gorge's diverse collection of ecosystems. At 80 miles long and up to 4,000 feet deep, this river canyon cuts the only sea level route through the Cascade Mountains.
Aug 28 2017 (MON)	WALLA WALLA, WASHINGTON	Named one of the top ten wine regions in the world, this world-class wine country was shaped by its distinctive micro-climates, rich volcanic soil, and abundant river irrigation. Swirl a glass and explore the caves at Basel Cellars Estate Winery. And while the passion may be in the bottle, original artwork and a smooth pour are both highlights at Dunham Cellars. If you're motivated (and you will be), there's free time to stroll the boutique shops and tasting rooms lining the streets of historic Walla Walla. Then, relax back aboard the S.S. Legacy, as you sail into the Snake River Canyon.
Aug 29 2017 (TUE)	PALOUSE FALLS STATE PARK	According to the Palouse tribal legend, four giant brothers pursued a mythic creature called "Big Beaver." Fighting gallantly, each time Big Beaver was speared, the canyon walls were gouged until he tore out a huge canyon, the river tumbled over a cliff, and the falls were born. Arriving at the falls, by way of bus along the Palouse River, notice the jagged canyon walls and the deep marks of Big Beaver's claws. This afternoon there'll be an onboard tasting and presentation by your wine host.
Aug 30 2017 (WED)	RED MOUNTAIN	A visit to the Walter Clore Wine & Culinary Center provides palette pleasing access to Washington wine experts--learn about the diversity of the state's wine and food products, perfect food pairings, and sample wines from a featured AVA. Then it's off to discover the pride of the Red Mountain appellation--the smallest wine-grape growing region of Washington by acreage and known for its critically acclaimed reds. Savor a tour, tasting, and lunch at the exquisite Terra Blanca Estate Winery & Vineyard. Explore Terra Blanca's rolling vineyards, wine caves, and beautifully manicured estate grounds. Nose and bouquet, balance and finish, legs and body--your wine host and sommelier guide you through an onboard tasting event before dinner.
Aug 31 2017 (THU)	THE DALLES, OREGON	Wine and art have long been a fated blend, and that's precisely what's in store today. Atop a bluff overlooking the Columbia River Gorge, tour the Maryhill Museum--a castle-like chateau with an eclectic collection of European paintings, Rodin sculptures, Native artifacts, and the Queen of Romania's personal effects. Along the adjacent slopes at the Maryhill Winery, taste award-winning wines and take in the expansive views of Columbia River Gorge cliffs stretching 1,000 feet below. After lunch aboard the S.S. Legacy, the afternoon in The Dalles is yours as you please--a tour and taste at Columbia Valley AVA's Sunshine Mill Winery, stroll downtown or along the Riverfront Trail, or perhaps peel a grape and simply relax on deck.

Sep 01 2017 (FRI)	WILLAMETTE VALLEY	Oregon's largest AVA, the Willamette Valley is an oenophile's mecca with over 250 wineries and six recognized sub-appellations. And like a plump grape, bursting with opportunities to please your palate! At Hawks View Cellars, tour the sustainably farmed 50-acre estate vineyard and sip on some award-winning Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris. Then tour and taste at a couple of other hand-picked wineries--perhaps take in Parrett Mountain's southern views while sipping Archer Vineyards' old-vine varietals, or nestled among the Dundee Hills, is family-run Domaine Serene, specializing in Pinot Noir from eco-cultivated vineyards. Or maybe it's world-renowned Ponzi Winery atop a Chehalem Mountain slope or Penner-Ash Wine Cellars with its wide Chehalem Valley vistas. Whichever winemakers du jour, you'll gain an insider's view of this world-renowned region. Tonight, we pull out all the corks for a wine extravaganza and city lights cruise along the Willamette River--raising one last glass to toast friendship and wine at the captain's dinner.
Sep 02 2017 (SAT)	PORTLAND, OREGON	Sated, your week of wineries and river cruising has come to an end. Enjoy breakfast with friends and say farewell to the crew before disembarking.
